Illustrators Society

APPLICATION

The Northern Ohio Illustrator's Society is a professional organization of illustrators committed to:

- The continued support and promotion of excellence in the fine art of illustration
- The education and discussion of the creative, aesthetic, technical, business and ethical issues in the profession.
- The mentoring and development of students and potential professionals.
- The building of a professional community through socializing, communication and networking.
- The increased awareness and use of Cleveland illustrators on a local and national level through gallery shows, brochures and contributions to the Northern Ohio Community.
